Lessons Learned from the Field

Over a decade of Banner work has taught us what drives success:

- ▶ It's not just IT's job. Banner touches every corner of your institution. Your upgrade team should include stakeholders from across campus—especially students.
- ▶ Know where you are and where you're going. A clear understanding of your current environment, desired outcomes, and readiness gaps is essential to avoid delays and budget overruns.
- ▶ Don't just migrate—modernize. Use this transition as a springboard to redesign business processes, reduce technical debt, and position your institution for future innovation.
- ▶ Avoid a one-size-fits-all approach. CampusWorks creates tailored implementation plans to meet your institutional goals, not generic playbooks.

The Time Is Now
